

Hafa Adai ALL 8th Grade Pirates!

10/14/20 (Wed)

University of Guam's Educational Talent Search (ETS) wants you to be a part of their program. ETS is a federally funded program at UOG that provides the following services to 8th grade students at AIJMS:

- Tutoring (at least two times a month at our school or online as well as tutoring at UOG after school or on Saturdays by appointment)
- Career exploration activities and field trips
- High school preparation activities (summer/break sessions)
- Academic assistance (i.e. study skills, learning styles, etc.)
- Assistance with your education from middle school to college or a career
- Computer lab access and more

Guess what? Being a part of this great program is ABSOLUTELY FREE! YES, FREE! MOST 8th graders qualify regardless of their parents' income or if their parents received their bachelor's/baccalaureate degrees. If you are one of the first 25 students to return a COMPLETED application, you can be a part of this AWESOME program.

You can email Ms. Debra Mariano (AIJMS ETS counselor) for more info at drmariano@gdoe.net. Information and the application are also available online at <https://www.uog.edu/trio-program/educational-talent-search.php>. So, what are you waiting for? Get moving already! READY...SET...GO!

Stay safe! Your Pirate Counselors
